THE ÆTNA STILL AHEAD. IT has been tried and has never failed to give satisfaction to the purchaser. Farmers will find it to their advantage to call on the subscriber during the April court and examine the above machine. It will be on exhibition at the Court House in Huntingdon during the two weeks of court. It is a combined Machine; can be changed from a Mower to a Reaper in a few moments; can be worked with a slow team, it being higher geared than other machines and the draft being reduced to the lowest attainable point. Reaping and Mowing with the Ætna is no harder on the team than plowing oats and stubble. It is believed by all who have tried it that it is the machine best adapted to the wants of the farmers in this country. It has no side draft and no weight on the horses' necks. We will also have one of the Wood Reapers and Mowers on the ground at the same time. Farmers intending to purchase machines this season will do well to examine the above machines before purchasing elsewhere. All you want is to examine the Ætna to enable you to make up your mind what machine to buy. I am the authorized agent of Messrs. Wharton & Maguire for the above machines, also for the Willoughby Gum spring Drill. I will also have one of the famous Harpoon Hay-forks on hand, which every farmer should examine whether he needs a fork or not. Every farmer should have one. They are the best in the market. No farmer that tries one could be induced to purchase any other kind. I have the exclusive right of this county. Wharton & Maguire are my agents for the sale of the above Hay-Fork. Any other person selling the above Fork in Huntingdon county will be dealt with according to law in such cases. Don't forget where to call. At Wharton & Maguire's, or at the Court House during court week. THOMAS W. MONTGOMERY, ap8-2m Neff's Mills, Hunt. co., Pa.

Registry Law.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of each of the assessors within this commonwealth, on the first Monday in June of each year, to take up the transcript he has received from the county commissioners under the eighth section of the act of fifteenth April, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and proceed to an immediate revision of the same, by striking therefrom the name of every person who is known by him to have died or removed since the last previous assessment from the district of which he is the assessor, or whose death or removal from the same shall be made known to him, and to add to the same the name of any qualified voter who shall be known by him to have moved into the district since the last previous assessment, or whose removal into the same shall be or shall have been made known to him, and also the names of all who shall make claim to him to be qualified voters therein. As soon as this revision is completed he shall visit every dwelling house in his district and make careful inquiry if any person whose name is on his list has died or removed from the district, and if so take the same therefrom, or whether any qualified voter resides therein whose name is not on his list, and if so to add the same thereto; and in all cases where a name is added to the list a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person; and the assessor shall in all cases ascertain, by inquiry, upon what ground the person so assessed claims to be a voter. Upon the completion of this work, it shall be the duty of each assessor as aforesaid to proceed to make out a list, in alphabetical order, of the white freemen, above twenty-one years of age, claiming to be qualified voters in the ward, borough, township or district of which he is the assessor, and opposite each of said names state whether said freeman is or is not a housekeeper; and if he is, the number of his residence, in towns where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated; and if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts; also, the occupation of the person; and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding and with whom, and if working for hire or salary, the name of the employer, and write opposite each of said names the word "voter;" where any person claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor, unless he has been for five consecutive years next preceding a voter in said district; and in all cases where the person has been naturalized, the name shall be marked with the letter "N;" where the person has merely declared his intentions to become a citizen and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked "D. I;" where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two, as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and if the person has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter "R." shall be placed opposite the name. It shall be the further duty of each assessor as aforesaid, upon the completion of the duties herein imposed, to make out a separate list of all new assessments made by him and the amounts assessed upon each, and furnish the same immediately to the county commissioners, who shall immediately add the names to the tax duplicate of the ward, borough, township or district in which they have been assessed.

SEC. 2. On the list being completed and the assessments made as aforesaid, the same shall forthwith be returned to the county commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made out as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the assessor, who shall, prior to the first of August in each year, put one copy thereof on the door of or on the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the other in his possession, for the inspection, free of charge, of any person resident in the said election district who shall desire to see the same; and it shall be the duty of the said assessor to add, from time to time, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such claimant, and mark opposite the name "C. V.," and immediately assess him with a tax, nothing, as in all other cases, his occupation, residence, whether a boarder or housekeeper; if a boarder, with whom he boards; and whether naturalized or designing to be, marked in all such cases the letters, opposite the name, "N." or "D. I.," as the case may be; if the person claiming to be assessed be naturalized, he shall exhibit to the assessor his certificate of naturalization; and if he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next ensuing election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention; in all cases where any ward, borough, township or election district is divided into two or more precincts, the assessor shall note in all his assessments the election precinct in which each elector resides, and shall make a separate return for each to the county commissioners, in all cases in which a return is required from him by the provisions of this act; and the county commissioners, in making duplicate copies of all such returns, shall make duplicate copies of the names of the voters in each precinct, separately, and shall furnish the same to the assessor; and the copies required by this act to be placed on the doors of or on election places on or before the first of August in each year, shall be placed on the door of or on the election place in each of said precincts.

SEC. 3. After the assessments have been completed on the tenth day preceding the second Tuesday in October of each year, the assessor shall, on the Monday immediately following, make a return to the county commissioners of the names of all persons assessed by him since the return required to be made by the second section of this act, noting opposite each name the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid; and the county commissioners shall thereupon cause the same to be added to the return required by the second section of this act, and a full and correct copy thereof to be made, containing the names of all persons so returned as resident taxables in said ward, borough, township or precinct, and furnish the same, together with the necessary election blanks, to the officers of the election in said ward, borough, township or precinct, on or before six o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday of October; and no man shall be permitted to vote at the election on that day whose name is not on said list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote, as hereinafter required.

SEC. 4. On the day of election any person whose name is not on the said list, and claiming the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter, for the period of at least ten days next preceding said election, which witness shall take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed, affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter; and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; that he has resided in the commonwealth one year, or if formerly a citizen therein and has moved therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has paid a state or county tax which has been assessed at least ten days before said election; and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state, when, where and by what court he was naturalized, and shall also produce his certificate of naturalization for examination; the said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affiant was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid; and the tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination, unless the affiant shall state in his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any; but if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit, that he is a native born citizen of the United States, (or if born elsewhere, shall state that fact in his affidavit, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization;) and shall further state in his affidavit that he is, at the time of taking the affidavit, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years; that he has resided in the state one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such election, he shall be entitled to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes; the said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the election board, and at the close of the election they shall be enclosed with the list of voters, tally list and other papers required by law to be filed by the return judge with the prothonotary, and shall remain on file therewith in the prothonotary's office, subject to examination, as other election papers are; if the election officers shall find that the applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, he or they shall be permitted to vote, and the name or names shall be added to the list of taxables by the election officers, the word "tax" being added where the claimant claims to vote on tax, and the word "age" where he claims to vote on age; the same words being added by the clerks in each case respectively on the lists of persons voting at such election.

SEC. 5. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such persons; whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted on by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected, according to the evidence; every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for ten years, consecutively, a voter in the district in which he offers his vote; and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted," with the month and year; and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day, by virtue of the same certificate, excepting where sons are entitled to vote by virtue of the naturalization of their fathers, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, upon so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; but the fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment one year; the like punishment shall be inflicted on conviction, on the officers of election who shall neglect or refuse to make, or cause to be made, the indorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate.

SEC. 6. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law or the laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such person to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced, for every such offence, to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not more than one year, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 7. Ten days preceding every election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, it shall be the duty of the assessor to attend at the place fixed by law for holding the election in each election district, and then and there hear all applications of persons whose names have been omitted from the list of assessed voters, and who claim the right to vote, or whose rights have originated since the same was made out, and shall add the names of such persons thereto as shall show that they are entitled to the right of suffrage in such district, on the personal application of the claimant only, and forthwith assess them with the proper tax.

After completing the list, a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of or on the house where the election is to be held, at least eight days before the election; and at the election the same course shall be pursued, in all respects, as is required by this act and the acts to which it is a supplement, at the general elections in October.—The assessor shall also make the same returns to the county commissioners of all assessments made by virtue of this section; and the county commissioners shall furnish copies thereof to the election officers in each district, in like manner in all respects as is required at the general elections in October.

SEC. 8. The same rules and regulations, and at every secretary sports, election or ward election, in all respects, as at the general elections in October.

SEC. 9. The respective assessors, inspectors and judges of the elections shall each have the power to administer oaths to any person claiming the right to be assessed or the right of suffrage, or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by any of said officers under this act; and any willful false swearing by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers, shall be punished as perjury.

SEC. 10. The assessors shall each receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined as is provided by law for the performance of their other duties, to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases; and it shall not be lawful for any assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within ten days next preceding the election to be held on the Second Tuesday of October, in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President of the United States; any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and subject the officers so offending to a fine, on conviction, not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 11. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, stating under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held, in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county, if in session, or if not, a judge thereof in vacation, to appoint two judicious, sober and intelligent citizens of the county to act as overseers at said election; said overseers shall be selected from different political parties, where the inspectors belong to different parties, and where both of said inspectors belong to the same political party, both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party; said overseers shall have the right to be present with the officers of the election, during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted, and the returns made out signed by the election officers; to keep a list of voters, if they see proper; to challenge any person offering to vote, and interrogate him and his witnesses, under oath, in regard to his right of suffrage at said election, and to examine his papers produced; and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers so selected and appointed every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duties; and if said election officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present and perform their duties as aforesaid, or if they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled at such election district may be rejected by any tribunal trying a contest under said election: Provided, That no person signing the petition shall be appointed an overseer.

SEC. 12. If any prothonotary, clerk, or the deputy of either, or any other person, shall affix the seal of office to any naturalization paper, or permit the same to be affixed, or give out, or cause or permit the same to be given out, in blank, whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnish a naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court, in the presence of some of the judges thereof, according to the act of Congress, or shall aid in, connive at, or in any way permit the issue of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; and either or any of the persons, their aiders or abettors, guilty of either of the misdemeanors aforesaid, shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the proper penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years.

SEC. 13. ☞ A few days since Mrs. Alfred Beans, of Northampton, Bucks county, left the house to go in the milk vault, and on returning found a huge black snake, nearly five feet in length, in the cradle with the babe, a few months old. Mrs. Beans immediately grasped the child by its head and drew it from the cradle while the snake was lying across its breast. Mr. Beans was not at home at the time, but a neighbor was summoned and the reptile killed. It is supposed that the snake came from a large heap of stones that lay near by, which had been hauled there preparatory to building a new house.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Hon. DAN'L. J. MORRELL,

OF CAMBRIA COUNTY.

[Subject to the decision of the Republican State Convention.]

To Our Friends and Patrons.

Until we give notice to the contrary, we will issue to all paying us money on subscription to Globe, advertising, job work and old store bills, chance checks for presents in our Enterprise. Now is the time to subscribe, advertise, have your bills, etc., printed, and for all indebted to us to pay up.

☞We direct the attention of the reader to the Registry Law, on our outside. Read it carefully, as you are directly interested in it.

☞James M. Weakley, Esq., of Carlisle, has been appointed Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, in place of Isaac B. Gara, Esq., resigned.

☞Not that they love their country less, but that they love bondage more, do the Democracy so bitterly assail the institutions and government of free America.

☞A great deal of joy was manifested throughout the country, upon the completion of the Pacific Railroad. Jubilees were held in New York, Boston and San Francisco.

☞According to the returns of Assessors, received at the Internal Revenue Department, the income returns for this year are greater than has been returned in any year previous.

☞The Atlantic and the Pacific are now bound together by a continuous rail, and we are almost within speaking distance of San Francisco. Who could have accomplished such a feat but the ever wide-awake Yankee?

☞Our Cuban advices are decidedly in favor of the Spaniards. It is stated that the insurrectionists cannot hold out much longer. They will be compelled to yield to a superior force. We regret it.

☞Think of it! Is it not wonderful? A traveler can now go from New York to San Francisco, a distance of 3,377 miles, in eight days, without losing a meal or a night's rest? Is it not truly wonderful?

☞Not only this country, but all the civilized nations of the world will rejoice at the successful completion of the great continental line of railway, spanning the territory of the American Union.

☞We had the pleasure of taking Gov. Curtin by the hand last week. The Governor is looking remarkably well, and is enjoying excellent health. He bears his honors meekly. He will sail for St. Petersburg about the middle of June.

☞The National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, met on Wednesday, the 12th inst., at Cincinnati. Gens. Burnside and Logan were the prominent competing candidates for the Commandership of the Order for the ensuing year. General Logan was re-elected.

☞James Fisk, Jr., of New York, the great Erie Railroad Swindler, has brought three suits for libel against the New York Times. One for $1,000,000 and the other two for $100,000 each. Fisk must have an enormous impression of the ability of the editors to pay. He will be just $1,200,000 better off when he gets the damages claimed, which will be when woman ceases to love or the moon turns into green cheese.

☞England, France and Spain, it is rumored, have formed an alliance to whip the United States. That alliance will be their death, but we have no doubt the struggle would be a fierce one. In the end, England would be dispossessed of her Canada, France would swamp her treasury, and Spain would lose her Cuba. We have therefore all to gain, and the alliance all to lose; so we place very little credence in the rumor, as it would be very foolish in any such powers to make such great risks.

MINERS STRIKE.—From the anthracite coal regions of Schuylkill, Luzerne and Carbon counties, we learn that a general strike (for what nobody knows) amongst the miners, has taken place and they have all "come out" and for what?—to starve. Thus 30,000 miners, a majority of whom are in debt and have not a day's wages ahead, by order of a so-called Executive Committee, quit work for a reason they cannot give themselves. Such, at least is the account we have of it, from those who ought to know. It is very strongly hinted that this strike is, in the interest of the large operators, who have an immense quantity of coal on hand for which they want an advanced price, and thus combine with the officers of the Miners Association, who have but to issue the order to "strike," and it is promptly obeyed and no questions asked. Coal has already advanced in New York.

☞A special Cabal dispatch from London to the New York Tribune, on the 11th inst., was intended to startle the people of this country and frighten the President into hysterics or something else, but it is recorded that when Grant was handed the dispatch, he read it quietly, and then resumed his smoking, chatting all the while with those present as calmly as if nothing had occurred, his equilibrium not being in the least unseated. This highly important announcement reads as follows:

"Initial steps have been taken for an alliance, offensive and defensive, between England, France, and Spain against the United States—the rejection of the Alabama treaty, the tone of Mr. Sumner's speech, the alleged filibustering tendencies of Gen. Grant's Administration, and the reported connivance at expeditions from the United States against Cuba, being made the pretexts for a necessity for such alliance."

It had the effect, however, of creating considerable excitement in Washington amongst non-officials, but further than that, it failed of its object, for no one in official circles believed a word of it, for as yet, nothing is known of the foreign policy of the new administration, consequently there is no cause for an alliance, such as is spoken of in the dispatch. The newspapers, generally, consider it a huge joke got up in the interest of England and Spain to frighten Grant into issuing a neutrality proclamation, for it is well known to our readers that Cuba is struggling to free herself from the bloody-thirsty Spaniards, with indifferent success, as yet, and it is known in Europe that the people of America are in sympathy with Cuba and that the administration is disposed to look favorably upon the success of the revolution. Without having recognized the belligerent rights of the revolutionists or in any way assisted them, it is feared in Europe that it might be done, and it is to prevent such a thing, we take it, that this English bull has been telegraphed to this country.

The New York Times, in an article reviewing this reported alliance, thinks that "the most agreeable and consolatory thought just now is that alliances are a game two can play at, and that perhaps a triple alliance of Russia, Prussia and the United States might prove an overmatch for England, France and Spain." We are not in a condition for war, and the powers of Europe have as much as they can attend to on the other side of the waters. We are better able to go to war with them, than they are with us.

The Alabama Claims.

The English papers are now engaged in severely criticizing Senator Sumner's speech on the Alabama Claims. By the tone of the press, John Bull is evidently very considerably excited, if not frightened at the aspect of affairs in this country, on the Alabama question. The English Lion sees that Grant is not to be trifled with, and means to carry out a policy in the interest of America and not of England. Although Grant's course in the Alabama matter has not yet fully developed, they take Sumner's speech as a fore runner of what they may expect, and are howling like so many hounds in a fox chase, and trump up every thing they can think of since the days of the Revolution, as a set-off to the claims in question. The Morning Standard, a conservative organ, in a leading article in reference to this matter, after reviewing the relative position of the United States and Great Britain, asserts that the raids and other outrages perpetrated by American Fenians in Canada during the past few years more than overbalance the depredations committed by the Alabama on American Commerce. The fact is, the English Lion is afraid of the American Eagle, and whilst he will endeavor, by all the ingenuity with which he is possessed, to avoid the payment of the claims, if he sees that the American Eagle is in earnest, the first time she screams, he will be only too glad to come to terms to avoid what must be to him a disastrous and bloody war.

☞To the many questions already disturbing the peace of Europe, there is now to be added the Gibraltar question. From the proceedings in the Spanish Cortes it appears that Senor Orense asked the Government whether it had entered into negotiations with England for the recovery of Gibraltar, and that the Minister of Finance, fully sharing the idea that such negotiations should be opened, only desired them to be put off until Spain shall be fully reorganized. The sympathies of the world in this question will be with Spain. Gibraltar, though it has been long under the rule of England, is a part of the Spanish nation, and sooner or later England will have to consent to its incorporation with the Spanish monarchy, as, some years ago, it had to give up the Ionian Islands of Greece.

☞The New York Times wants to know now that the Pacific Railroad is completed, what is to be our next great public work? Before the Pacific Railroad we had the Atlantic cable, and before that we had the establishment of our continental system, and before that—we might go on and enumerate many of our great public works. As it is we have a number of important things on hand, in different parts of the country; but none of them are of such stupendous magnitude as to interest the whole nation. What, then, are we to have next? Is it to be a cable across the Pacific Ocean from California to China? Or—what?

LETTER FROM INDIA.

The following is the copy of a private letter from Rev. J. D. Brown, who for eight years past has been stationed as a missionary in India:

In Camp at Golagokam Nath,
Oudh, India, March 7, 1869.

MY DEAR SISTER:—Who would have thought ten years ago, that this evening would find me sitting in a tent in a grove of mango trees, just alongside of a celebrated Hindoo shrine? How I wish you could only sit down and chat with me this evening, for I am sure I would have many questions to ask and much to tell which would interest you. But since that great privilege is denied me I must make use of this pen and paper to tell you what I cannot say face to face. And first be it known to you, child of the western world, that I am at present at a great heathen Mela, or religious fair—perhaps more religious than some of the "fairs" the fair sex of America are holding these times for the purpose of softening church seats at the risk of hardening the consciences of their occupants.

My dear wife and "bairns" are at home fifty miles distant, and in all the thousands around me there is not a white face. But I have become so accustomed to the language and customs of these poor natives that I do not feel lonely among them. I sent my tent on here last week with two good native brethren, who are earnest preachers of the Gospel, and I came in a doly (palanquin,) making a circle of nearly 75 miles to visit an out station, and a couple of native christian families who live away out in the jungle. The people are gathering here rapidly to spend a few days in various occupations; but the main object is to bathe in a large tank, or pool built in honor of an old ascetic whose name it bears—"Gola Gokam Nath" While I am writing the jackals are prowling around my tent. All at once about a dozen of them commence a series of low and plaintive wailings, very much like the crying of a child. This increases into a continued yell which winds up with a few yelps like a dog, and then all stop at once as if by order. Had you been sitting here when this wild serenade commenced, having never heard the like before, you would have been awfully frightened, and yet these animals, which very much resemble a red fox, are perfectly harmless, and in God's providence are very useful, for they are similar to the "Sanitary Boards" or health officers you have in American cities, with this exception, that they perform their duties much better than their two legged brethren, and at a much smaller expense to the community.

These places of pilgrimage are generally attended by all kinds of people, and thieves form no exception. So on the principle of setting a thief to watch a thief, or honor among knaves, I have three Government "chowkedara," a kind of low police, to watch my tent at night. I have never been robbed but once, and that time the rascals took my pantaloons with my keys in the pocket, my wife's underclothes, etc, and my large American shawl, which I begrudge them to this day.

You will see from the date of this letter that we are nearly in the commencement of another hot season. I feel some anxiety about my wife and Herbie, our first-born; they are both quite delicate. Were missionaries not so scarce, I would probably have complied with the advice of our physician and have taken them to America this year, but "the harvest is great and the laborers are few," hence we have to sacrifice to some extent the interests of ourselves and families for the cause we advocate; but should this hot season prove as hard on my loved ones, as I have reason to fear it will, I think it quite possible that we will leave India for a season at least, about the first of next year. We had desired and rather expected, to stay ten years, but I fear were I to attempt to do so I would very likely leave Herbie and my wife both in India. However, we are in the hands of a kind Heavenly Father, and only desire to follow the leadings of His providence. Should it appear duty to go home next year, if we live so long, we will not refuse; on the other hand should duty demand our presence here we will simply obey with cheerful hearts.

Our Conference met this year in Bareilly. I was made Secretary this year, and my old post of Assistant and Recording Secretary was conferred on another brother. Our Conference was the best spiritually and socially it has ever been my privilege to attend.—Never have I seen a Conference so powerfully baptised again and again with the Holy Ghost. O, it was like that upper room at Jerusalem! God was with us in power and recommissioned His servants to preach the unsearchable riches of grace among these poor Gentiles. "The morning light is breaking," as we used to sing. God grant that the darkness may soon disappear. You can scarcely form an idea of the debasing power of idolatry. It seems as if all the evils to which human depravity can lead, are met with here on every side. Ignorance wedded to superstition has here more than a local habitation and a name. This pair of devil's brats have a numerous progeny, which is cursing this fair and fruitful land. Hindoos and Mohammedans seem to vie with each other in the invention and practice of the most absurd and frequently most disgusting ceremonies, and all, too, in the name of religion. Nothing too absurd to be believed by the superstitious and credulous Hindoo, provided the teacher be one of his own creed, and nothing too cruel and abominable to be performed by the haughty Mohammedan in the name of his prophet. But I must stop for to-night. Should I find time, I will tell you something about the scenes I will doubtless witness here during the next three or four days. J. D. BROWN.

☞In the course of his remarks, in reply to the serenade tendered him a short time ago, by his friends in Philadelphia, Gov. Curtin said:

"I am proud that this great State of Pennsylvania has provided for the orphans and widows of the men who fell to save our Government. It is a proud satisfaction to Pennsylvania to know that she is the only State that ever did so great and holy a work of beneficence and charity. I would have you, people of Pennsylvania, to say to day that from the full treasury of this State more money shall be taken for the crippled and sick men of the war. Oh, my friends, if I should return to my country and know that the thousands of wounded men who are at the corners of your streets grinding organs and picking up a scanty living by begging, were provided for, I would feel still prouder of this great State of Pennsylvania. You are almost out of debt. You owe an immense debt of gratitude to those who served you during the war. We stayed at home and enjoyed the comforts and luxuries of life. They were exposed to battle and slaughter, and passed the lonely picket in the night surrounded with dangers. He was promised when he left his home that living he should be cared for, and that when dead his wife should be protected, and his orphans maintained by the public expense. We all promised that. Let us redeem that promise, and let the great heart of the people of Pennsylvania move for the protection of that class of our fellow-citizens; and I am ashamed to say, to-night, Pennsylvania has not done her duty to the crippled and maimed and helpless of the war. I would to God that the heart of Pennsylvania was moved in that direction."

The great Mylar festival in India closes with an oracle from the deity. A little child is held up on the shoulders of a priest, and closing in his arms the iron bow of the god upheld by the priest, he utters the words put into his mouth by the god. To assure her that such was the fact, he pointed out twelve or twenty photographs of ladies who were taken with one foot doubled under them, having assumed the position unconsciously, through habit.

FIFTY YEARS AGO.

In what a wondrous age we live,
Not many seem to know;
But few the mighty change perceive,
Since fifty years ago;
Our ancestors did never dream,
When things moved very slow,
Of what we're doing now by steam—
Say fifty years ago.
Gentlemen's and Boys' Boots and Shoes then
Were made with little show,
But LEWIS RICHTER makes the "styles"
At prices very low. my12-3m

CHEAP AND VALUABLE

VIRGINIA LANDS FOR SALE by

P. M. & M. S. Lytle.

The following is a description of two tracts of land which are hereby offered for sale:—

No. 1. THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-EIGHT ACRES in Appomattox county, Virginia, midway between the south side Railroad and James River Canal, and about six miles from each, Appomattox depot being the nearest point on the railroad. About one half of the tract is cleared. The balance is in original and second growth of oak, pine and other timber. It has three settlements on it occupied by tenants, at one of which there is a new tobacco house and the usual out-houses, together with an apple orchard and peach and cherry trees. Produces all the usual crops, such as corn, oats, clover and other grasses, fruits, vegetables, vines, &c. One mile from post-office, stores, churches and shops. The title is indisputable. Price $6, per acre, and is offered at this very low price because the owner is settled in business at a distance from it and cannot attend to it, and especially because he needs the money in his present location. Purchase money one half in hand, balance in one year with interest.

No. 2. SEVENTY-FIVE ACRES (new land) on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, six miles from Lynchburg. Half in timber, which sells to railroad at $8 per cord on the place. Cars stop at it twice a day for wood, &c. One mile from regular depot. Has a young small orchard on it—seemes particularly suited for fruits and vines. Price $1000, half cash, balance in one year with interest. There are several beautiful building sites on it.

It is well known that Virginia lands are now being sold at a sacrifice and the tracts above described are offered at unusually low prices. Persons desiring to buy or intending to go south for that purpose are requested to call on the undersigned and ascertain where the owner of these lands will be found.

Huntingdon and the Penn'a. Canal.

At a meeting of the citizens of Huntingdon, held at the office of Speer & McMurtrie, on the 30th of April, 1869, Thomas Fisher was called to the chair, and R. Milton Speer was appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting was stated by S. E. Henry to be, the consideration of the advantage of Huntingdon, as the terminus of the navigation on the Penn'a. Canal, and the expediency of memorializing the Canal Company on the subject.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the chair appoint a committee of fifteen, to draw a memorial to the Canal Company, presenting the advantages of Huntingdon, as the terminus of navigation, upon the proposed enlargement of the Canal.

The chair appointed the following persons, as the committee: S. E. Henry, R. B. Petrikin, W. A. Orbison, D. Blair, D. Dunn, A. R. Stewart, Dr. R. A. Miller, H. S. Wharton, Henry Leister, James Port, Rob't. Cunningham, J. Sewell Stewart, Geo. Jackson, Alex. Port and H. G. Fisher.

On motion of Mr. Stewart,

Resolved, That the committee report to an adjourned meeting on the evening of 1st May. Adjourned.

MAY 1st, 1869.—The committee appointed to prepare a memorial to the Canal Company, through J. Sowell Stewart, Esq., reported to the meeting, the following, which, on motion of Mr. Orbison, was adopted:

To the President and Directors of the Penn'a. Canal Company.

GENTLEMEN: A meeting of a considerable number of the principal citizens of the borough of Huntingdon assembled, on the 30th of April, 1869, at the office of Speer & McMurtrie, to give expression of their appreciation of the project of your company to enlarge the Pennsylvania Canal; whereupon Thomas Fisher, Esq., was called to the chair, and R. Milton Speer, Esq., appointed Sec'y. A committee of fifteen, consisting of S. E. Henry, R. B. Petrikin, W. A. Orbison, David Blair, David Dunn, A. R. Stewart, Henry S. Wharton, Henry Leister, R. A. Miller, Jas. Port, R. M. Cunningham, J. Sewell Stewart, Geo. Jackson, Alex. Port and H. G. Fisher, were appointed to draw up a memorial to the gentlemen at the head of your organization, expressing active sympathy with the movement, presenting some reasons pointing to its necessity; and indicating this, as the proper terminal point for the enlarged canal.

Above Huntingdon, boatmen, with even the small craft now and heretofore used, have always experienced the difficulty of navigating the canal in time of low water, while below there was comparatively plenty. Huntingdon is also the first point of your canal, where the coal and lumber from the Alleghany mountains on the line of the Penn'a. Railroad, from the Philipsburg region, and from Broad Top Mountain can meet at a common trans-shipping place from the railroads to the canal. Large discoveries of iron ores have lately been made along the eastern slope of Tussey's mountain additional to those long known as the fossil deposits, which are being rapidly developed and in the course of a very few years will furnish an extensive freighting business to the public thoroughfares passing this place. The coal fields of Somerset county may ultimately be tapped by the extension of the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad, the natural outlet of whose productions to water communication will be Huntingdon. Around all these will naturally circle an incidental business which it is impossible to foresee in detail.

We will further state that in the mountainous parts of Pennsylvania there are immense quantities of hemlock which, when made into lumber cannot reach the eastern market in competition to that now carried by water from other places, on account of the cost of transportation. With the proposed improvement, large boats and naturally cheapened transportation this would be a great and profitable trade. The bituminous coal could then be taken to Philadelphia, New York and Boston from central Pennsylvania cheaper than from any other part of the United States. Besides, the increase of the grain production in the west has been and will be so great, and so much of which will necessarily pass over the Pennsylvania improvements, that it will be impossible for the railroad promptly to transport the coal, iron and lumber, which must then be turned over to the canal.

While feeling the highest appreciation of all the lines of intercommunication with which we are favored, we pledge to the projected improvement our hearty good will; and by all fair means will give to it what trade and commerce we can to aid in making it beneficial to the public and profitable to its owners.

Dr. R. A. Miller, R. Milton Speer, W. A. Orbison, Alex. Port and Thos. S. Johnston, were appointed a committee to present a copy of the proceedings to I. J. Wistar, President of the Canal Company. On motion adjourned

Lloyd's Revolving Map.

We have received from Mr. A. H. Crum, State agent, one of Lloyd's Patent Revolving Double Maps of America and Europe, which for style and beauty of finish cannot be surpassed. These great maps show every place of importance, all railroads to date, and the latest alterations, thus making them invaluable for Schools and private families. No man should be ignorant of the outline of the globe on which he lives, and the information one receives from the study of a well executed Map is not soon forgotten. These Maps take up little space, and by means of the Reverser, either side can be brought front. Mr. Crum sells by wholesale and retail.

Thief Caught.

The thief who entered Mr. Richard Langdon's store, in Coaldale, recently, was detected at Bloody Run, on Wednesday last, and taken to the Bedford jail. He had attempted while in that place, to pass one of the stolen checks, which led to his discovery. Mr. Langdon and the constable took him to jail with some difficulty. His name is Patrick O'Neil

In two other basins he has about 3000 yearlings; in another, about 600 from two to three years old, which will average from 8 to 10 inches in length; and still another about 500 from three to four years old, which will average from 12 to 15 inches.

☞ The devotion of the forty hour's Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, will commence in the Catholic Church of the Most Holy Trinity, on Sunday, the 23d instant., and close Tuesday evening, 25th. Rev. Father Nolan, of Broad Top, will preach in same church on the evenings of the 24th and 25th.

Let Our Town Improve.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I am one of many that desire to see our town improve, and I propose to write a few short communications to revive an agitation upon the subject.

We have watched with pleasure the few advancements that have been made which have resulted in the erection of a Furniture Factory and its successful operation, and the number of buildings that have gone up in the old and new town; but we have had our fears that all was not yet done to build up our town on a substantial basis. A large number of dwellings have gone up, but by whom have they been built? The majority of them were built and are now occupied by our poor men, who depend on the railroad company and their daily labor on the the streets as teamsters or artisans for their daily bread. They at present have a reasonable share of work, but this is because improvements in building have been in regular progress; but we dread for the future. Large houses will not go up every year, and then where will they go for employment? One thing is certain, they will not stay here and starve.

Then, what must be done? The poor, as a general thing, have erected the buildings for their own comfort, in anticipation of brighter times. Those times can be made by our own citizens if they will only do it. We have wealthy men in our community to whom the laboring man must look for assistance. They have, (we are sorry to say it,) done nothing to help the poor man, or benefit themselves. They could, by investing in home manufactures, afford employment to those who now live in our town depending on them, and they could thereby afford work for hundreds more, and thus build up the town, and give it a business aspect—and they themselves would be the gainers.

I have something more to say upon this subject, which I will refer to again. IMPROVEMENT.

Narrow Escape.

A very narrow escape was made last Wednesday, by Revs. Hugh Linn and L. Rudisill of McConnellsburg.—They had been spending a few days in the lower part of this county, and were on their way home, when the horse suddenly took fright and started off in full run, passing over a dangerous piece of ground near the foot of Shade mountain, striking a stone wall, breaking a shaft, and throwing them out of the buggy. Mr. Linn was badly bruised, and Mr Rudisill escaped with a severe jarring and a slight bruise in the right side. By the course the horse took it seems almost Providential that they escaped death.

House Cleaning.

This important business, like many others, was somewhat delayed on account of the unfavorable weather, but no good house-wife will let its proper season go by without a thorough cleaning and shaking up. It entails a great deal of severe work both for body and mind till everything is properly scrubbed, arranged and repaired, but there are few undertakings that when completed give such general satisfaction, not only to the house-wife upon whom its burthen mainly rests, but the whole family feel as if they had moved into a new house, and all try, at least for sometime, not to undo what has been so well and judiciously performed. This important annual renovation is now being briskly carried out in almost every household of the town.

☞ The language of nature and experience demonstrates that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food, the beauties of landscape, the joys of companionship, the riches of literature, or the honors of station and renown, must preserve their health. The effect of foul, injurious food, entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshing sleep, low spirits, feverish burnings, etc., which are the symptoms of that horrid disease, Dyspepsia, which assumes a thousand shapes, and points toward a miserable life and premature decay. Plantation Bitters will prevent, overcome and counteract all of these effects. They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage.

WANTED.—A good cart horse. Address "W," Globe office. 2t.

MARRIED,

At the residence of the bride's mother, on the 13th inst., by the Rev. G. W. Zahniser, Mr. ALFRED C. LACY, of Philadelphia, to Miss EDWINA H. BENEDICT, youngest daughter of the late Adin W. Benedict, Esq., deceased.

Something more than the mere announcement is necessary to chronicle the wedding of the above couple—not merely because they have remembered us in their happiness, but because "Ed." is just the lady we wanted to congratulate upon such a subject. We regret to part with her genial, affable countenance and merry, ringing laugh and conversation, but we extend our usual blessing of a long life of happiness to both the happy ones, and hope they will not lack anything to make their earthly pilgrimage pleasant and profitable, and may their last days be full of peace.

DIED,

In this borough, on the 15th, after a long illness, WILLIAM STEEL, aged —— years.

[Written for the Globe.]

The Moral Telescope.

Nothing but the sovereign grace of God could take rebels from Satan's kingdom and subordinate them to the Prince of peace. Nothing but an invisible cause could produce such a visible effect. But in order to success the great charter of universal emancipation from bondage to sin and Satan, with all necessary laws and regulations, had to be written out and published to a listening world; and accordingly we find that men were qualified by Divine inspiration for the accomplishment of this great work, which was done to such perfection that for thousands of years it has bid defiance to human improvement.

But perfect as it is in itself, it would be insufficient to accomplish the object for which it was designed by the author, did there not emanate from the upper throne a power equal to that which accompanied the command of the Master to the dead body of "Lazarus to come forth;" an invisible power producing visible effects; call it phenomenal, infusion, the breath of the Almighty, or what you may, it is obvious that human language is insufficient to impart the true idea, save to subjects of the kingdom. To them it is like poor blind Bartimeus, they just know that whereas they were once blind they now see; they know and feel that whereas they were once bond men to the Prince of the power of the air, they are now freed men under the benign government of the Prince of peace. When this invisible cause animates the human soul, producing a visible effect, man goes forth in the service of this new and benignant Master with superhuman power and courage

Hence the ambassadors commissioned from the throne of their Prince, many of them endowed with the highest order of human intellect, are prepared to make the greatest sacrifice and perform the greatest deeds of daring, with unparalleled courage, of any class of men upon earth. We see them spending long exhausting years of the most intense mental labor, and spending the last dollar of their patrimonial estate. We see them braving the scoffs of the vain, the ridicule of wits, and the scorn of wealth. We see them going forth with their commission, the great charter of human rights and privileges, sealed with their Master's blood, in their hand. We see them thus armed, and thus directed by the great captain of their salvation, boldly assaulting the very citadel of the empire of the Prince of darkness. The walls of China or the edicts of emperors are insufficient to repel them, and they quail not from the assaults of the combined powers of earth and hell. We see them taking possession of the Mongolian empire; we see them permeating the empires of China and Japan with their doctrine; we see the pall of darkness rolling back from the Levant, and the Ottoman empire with its despotism tumbling and crumbling away before the Divine light of the Gospel. We see the man of sin sinking and shriveling into a pigmy, without sufficient power to keep him upon his throne. We see thrones of despots tottering and falling and tyrants driven into exile from the presence of the living soldiers of the cross; in short, we see that countless millions have already enlisted under the banner of King Jesus, a sure earnest of his final and universal triumph, when His kingdom shall "extend from the rising to the setting sun."

And now since we have seen that man, instead of being a development from the slimy tad-pole or infusoria, and capable of progressing by his unassisted reason to the highest conceivable perfection, that retrogression is the result, and wherever the traveler has roamed upon earth he has found man sinking deeper and deeper in degradation, save where the light of revelation has arrested his descent into total moral darkness. We have seen that had our patrimony been a whole planet in fee-simple, it could not reverse the doleful sentence, "dust thou art and to dust thou shalt return." Or had our intellectual education been so high amongst the untrodden fields of science that we would have to stoop in order to commune with the loftiest human powers, still we would have to read that stubborn truth as written upon all things beneath the sun as well as by the pen of inspiration, "vanity of vanities; all is vanity."

And now, my dear friend, let us cease to sorrow over the humility of our earthly lot, or simple puritanical training, where the bible, the psalm-book and the Confession of Faith constituted our paternal library, and where rustic simplicity prevailed. Away with that earthly ambition, the gratification of which (dare we assume the prerogative of God, and reason from such an hypothesis?) might long since have carried us down to the abode of eternal despair, exposed to that awful death which can never die. But rather let us rejoice that though children of poverty our good Master saw to it, that whilst in helpless infancy we were initiated into His kingdom of grace with all the privileges of earthly kings and princes, and that he has furnished us with all the necessary means and abundant time to prepare for triumphant entrance into His kingdom of glory, and that He has given us to anticipate that at the end of our weary pilgrimage the good Prince will meet and accompany us through the "dark valley and shadow of death," that He will wipe away the last tear from our eyes, remove from us all our filthy rags, once the harbingers of eternal death, array us in the spotless robe of His own righteousness, and put into our hands a title deed, sealed with His own blood, to an inheritance in the house of the Lord for evermore.

O, then with what gratitude should we realize that "the Lord of the whole earth doeth all things well, and that "He maketh all things work together for good to them who love Him."—And now as you and I are nearing the shore of time, that narrow isthmus separating between past and future eternity, with what assiduity we should see to it that our calling and election have been made sure before we embark in the measureless ocean. To us the "sun and the moon shall soon be darkened and the stars shall fall from heaven," in a few days the vanities of time will recede from our view; and then, when the body of sin and death of which the Apostle complained, is passing away forever, it shall be our privilege to sing his as our last song upon earth: "O, death where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law, but thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

And finally if we have fallen asleep in the bosom of Jesus, which is the very temple of benevolence, our souls shall ascend heavenward in triumph, and our bodies shall sleep quietly in their graves in anticipation of the last trumpet awakening the slumbering dead, when our glorious King shall proclaim His final victory in the sight of all the world.

Then shall come the last grand and awful catastrophy described by the apostle, (awful only to the enemies of our King,) "when the heavens, being on fire, shall pass away with a great noise and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up." Then come the Son of man in triumphal glory to judge both the quick and the dead. Then come the sound of the last trump which will shake the earth to its centre, when the graves in yonder cemetery where we have consigned nearly all our equals in years and companions in early life, nearly all those relatives and friends once so dear to us, shall be opened, and O, with what joy those who have long slept in Jesus shall awake in His likeness and in the likeness of each other, never more to be separated by sin or sorrow.

But our good Master has also provided for us a moral microscope and mirror. The former defies the interposition of opake matter, and reveals to us the mysterious working of our hearts; and the latter an infallible rule all covered with the most fascinating moral beauty, by which to test the rectitude of our lives,—but time and space for the present forbid the presentation of a full view of the instrumentality thus benevolently provided by our victorious Prince, in order to secure our complete triumph and eternal felicity. HOPE.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the mucous and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Constipation or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

McGUIRE'S

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER

FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH, BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR,

And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries. No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travellers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

McGUIRE'S

Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion

For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and perfuming the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country and is warranted free from all poisonous substances. This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and honored Cuticta, of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing.—When thus used it at once relieves headache.

WILD FLOWERS FOR THE TEETH.

All those who are in favor of white teeth and a pleasant and perfumed breath, should at once use McGuire's Wild Flowers for the Teeth. All these preparations are put up in the most elegant and ornamental manner. We make no exceptions in saying that they are an ornament to a lady's toilet table, and none complete without them.
